

The bill reported by Mr. Carpenter, chairman of the committee on divorces, entitled, an act to divorce Eliza Ann Boyd, of Kent county, from her husband James Boyd, was taken up for consideration, read the second time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Brown, seconded by two other members that voted in the majority, the house reconsidered their vote upon referring the message from the senate, in relation to the bill, entitled, an act for the better regulation of the militia of the city of Baltimore,

On motion of Mr. Brown, said message was then laid on the table.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The house again resolved itself into a committee, of the whole house, upon the report of the select committee appointed on the constitution, and the memorials upon the subject of a reform of the constitution of the State, and after some time spent therein, the speaker resumed the chair and Mr. Ely, the chairman, reported that the said committee had, according to order, again had the said report and memorials under consideration, and had made some progress therein, and directed him to ask leave to sit again,

Which was granted him by the house.

Mr. Pratt, chairman of the committee on internal improvement, reported a bill, entitled, an act authorising the treasurer for the western shore, on behalf of the State to subscribe for capital stock of the Annapolis and Potomac Canal company,

And, Mr. Brown reported a bill, entitled, a supplement to an act, passed December session 1834, entitled, an act for the building of a bridge over the Great falls of the Gunpowder, at Monkton Mills, in Baltimore county,

Which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. McLean,

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
